

Auld Lang Syne (old)

CHORUS

G                      D                      G      D      C
For auld lang syne, my dear, for auld lang syne.
G                      D                      G      C      G
We'll take a cup of kindness yet, for auld lang syne.
-----

G                                      D                      G      D                      C
Should auld acquaintance be forgot and never brought to mind?
G                                      D                      G      C      G
Should auld acquaintance be forgot since auld lang syne.

CHORUS

G                                      D                      G                      D                      C
We twa ha'e run a-bout the braes, and pu't the gowans fine;
G                                      D                      G      C      G
We've wandered mony a weary foot, since auld lang syne.

CHORUS

G                                      D                      G                      D                      C
We twa ha'e paidl't in the burn, frae mornin' sun 'til dine;
G                                      D                      G      C      G
But seas between us braid ha'e roared, since auld lang syne.

CHORUS

G                                      D                      G                      D                      C
And here's a hand, my trustie fiere, and gi'e's a hand o' thine;
G                                      D                      G      C      G
We'll tak' a right guid willie-waught; for auld lang syne.

CHORUS

G                                      D                      G                      D                      C
And surely ye'll be your pint-stoup, and surely I'll be mine;
G                                      D                      G      C      G
We'll take a cup of kindness yet for auld lang syne.
