

Honkytonk Man

G
I'm a honkytonk man and I can't seem to stop
C
I love to give the girls a whirl to the music of an old juke-box G
D7
But when my money's all gone I'm on the telephone
C D7 G
Hollerin "Hey-hey mama can your daddy come home"

D7
I'm livin' fast and dangerously
C G
But I've got plenty of company
D7
When the moon comes up and the sun goes down
C D7 G
That's when I wanna see the lights of town

I'm a honkytonk man and I can't seem to stop
C
I love to give the girls a whirl to the music of an old juke-box G
D7
But when my money's all gone I'm on the telephone
C D7 G
Hollerin' "Hey-hey mama can your daddy come home"

D7
It takes a pretty little gal and a jug of wine
C G
That's what it takes to make a honkytonk mind
D7
With the juke box moanin' a honkytonk sound
C D7 G
That's when I wanna lay my money down
