

Nancy Spain

CHORUS

G C D
No matter where I wander, I'm still haunted by your name.

C D G
The portrait of your beauty stays the same.

C
Standing by the ocean wondering where you've gone,

G D
If you'll return a-gain.

C D G
Where is the ring I gave to Nancy Spain?

G
Of all the stars that ever shone,

C G D
Not one does twinkle like your pale blue eyes,

C D G
Like golden corn at harvest time your hair.

Sailing in my boat the wind

C G D
Gently blows and fills my sail.

C D G
Your sweet-scented breath is every-where.

G
Daylight peeping through the curtains

C G D
Of the passing night time is your smile

C D G
And the sun in the sky is like your laugh.

C G D
Come back to me my Nancy; linger for just a little while.

C D G
Since you've left these shores I've known no peace or joy.

CHORUS

G
On the day in spring,
C G D
When snow starts to melt and streams to flow,
C D G
With the birds I'll sing this song.

In awhile I'll wander,
C G D
Down by bluebell grove where wildflowers grow
C D G
And I'll hope that lovely Nancy will re-turn.
